Ram's Hora Philosophy Which all May Read and Heed.

The light we do not walk in will soon leave us.

to give it.

There are no tollgates on the highway of holiness. Whoever knows God is a magnet for him.

God is always close to those who need his help.

Half-heartedness makes no prayers that God can answer.

The man who chases bubbles never has any time to rest. A ery is what the heart says

The most respectable sinners are the most dangerous ones.

The devil's hand drops when a good man gets on his knees.

Morality is only the polish on light.

The more an enemy hates us, the more our kindness will hurt him.

Count that day lost on which you have not let your light shine for Christ.

How it must puzzle the angels to see a preacher looking for an easy place.

The devil has to fight hard to hold his own anywhere near a praying mother.

Keep in touch with Christ, and he will help you to touch others for their good.

The millennium would be here now, if we all lived up to what we demand from others. God is disappointed, if we are not doing anything for him except making a noise in church. We may not all be able to do great things but we can all be faithful in little ones. Whatever the Christian does will be religious work, if he does it as Christ would have him do it. The fact that the devil is against a man, ought to be good evidence that he is on the Lord's side. When a man gets religion right, the first to find it out will be those who live nearest to him. Skeptics may try to tear to Bible to pieces, but every consistent Christian life proves it to be true. It is because the devil can make himself look like an angel of light, that the battle against him has lasted so long.

The man who isn't religious enough to do right when he isn't watched, isn't religious when he is watched.

The world is in the dark about God, and the first business of every Christian should be to help set it right.

To be religious should mean to be like Christ, and do as he did.

One of the greatest enemies the saloon has, is the mother who teaches her boy to pray.

Points for Christian Business Men.

Let it be seen by your dealings, that Christ goes to your place of business with you every morning.

Have weights and measures that will stand the light of the burning throne.

Be as religious in your buying and selling as you are in your singing and praying.

Let "Holiness to the Lord," be the sentiment going out with everything you have to sell.

Don't advertise your religion on J. W. CRAVEN. Agent, Hazel Green, Ky. circulars and billheads, but mix it with all your dealings in a way to convince your customers that you have something that isn't taught Livery, Feed and Sale Stable, at a commercial college.

Never do a questionable thing in order to make money. Money made in that way costs too much.

A crusty bachelor says, "A woman keeps secret what she does not know." It would be well if abme men would follow her examply to.

Office of THE PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HORNICK, Supt. ST. PAUL, MINN., September 7, 1894. EUREKA CHEMICAL AND M'F'G CO., LA CROSSE, WIS.

Dear Sirs-I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco Caro." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.
